JOURNAL OF THE INTEGRAL YOGA OF SRI AUROBINDO AND THE MOTHER

... [T]he need of a developing humanity is not to return always to its old ideas. Its need is to progress to a larger fulfilment in which, if the old is taken up, it must be transformed and exceeded. For the underlying truth of things is constant and eternal, but its mental figures, its life forms, its physical embodiments call constantly for growth and change.

ABOUT THE COVER

Morning. A storm breaks above a crystal lake. Swift rains followed by silence; a rift in the clouds. "When mind is still, then Truth gets her chance to be heard in the purity of the silence."—The Hour of God by Sri Aurobindo, p. 58. Photo by Chris Anton.
